LABELS OR BOX TOPS FOR EDUCATION

Various food products display a Label or Box Top for Education coupon located on the outside of the container in a "cut me" dashed area. Some food examples that carry this label are:

Campbell Soups, Toaster Strudels, some cake mixes, cereal boxes and V-8 juice, Prego.

Some labels may say:

1 point or 2 points, these labels help schools to buy musical instruments, playground and computer equipment which are a just a few items.

There is a special donation box at PSAC for these items.

All labels or box tops will be given to the Ocean Park Elementary School. Thank you for helping our school.

Stuffed Mushrooms

By Jeri Dawson

16 large mushrooms

¼ pound butter or more

½ cup dry breadcrumbs

1 Tbsp chopped parsley

1 Tbsp chopped chives

or onion

¼ tsp Tabasco

1 tsp salt

1tsp pepper

2 eggs lightly beaten

½ c parmesan cheese

Small amount of broth

Estimate about 4 mushrooms per person. Peel them and chop very fine. Wipe the mushroom caps with a damp cloth. Melt 4 Tbsp butter in a skillet and lightly sauté the chopped mushroom stem with the crumbs, parsley, chives or onion, and seasonings. Blend with the beaten eggs. Brush the bottom of a shallow baking dish with butter, just large enough dish to hold all the 16 caps. Brush the caps with melted butter inside and out. Stuff each cap with some of the mixture and place in the baking dish. Brush with melted butter and sprinkle with grated parmesan cheese. Add a little broth to the pan to keep them from sticking. Bake at 375 for about 15 min., or until the mushrooms are nicely browned and tender. You may baste with additional butter if you like.

Mushrooms stuffed with seafood:

Substitute for the chopped mushrooms in the recipe above 1 cup crabmeat or chopped shrimps, and add one tsp chopped dill or tarragon to the herbed mixture
